

You are not logged in.

User:

Pw:

remember me

Forgot Password?

Privacy Statement
Sign up/Renew

- Politics
- Business
- Community
- Education
- Health
- Election '05 Resources
- Science & Technology
- Legal News
- Food & Nutrition
- Environmental News
- Crime Watch
- Security Watch
- Labor Matters
- Observer Farmer
- TRC Proceedings
- Press Releases
- Sports
- Women ▾
- Opinions ▾
- Religion
- Obituaries
- Liberian Literature
- About Liberia ▾
- Arts & Culture
- Candid Camera with Sando Moore
- Cartoons
- CNN
- BBC
- ALL AFRICA

Liberia Recognizes Kosovo

Published: 30 May, 2008

MONROVIA, The Government of Liberia has joined several European Union countries and the United States of America in recognizing Kosovo, formerly a province of Serbia until February 17 this year when its inhabitants voted for independence.

Foreign Minister Olubanke King-Akerele

Gain access to this and all other stories. Subscribe now to www.liberianobserver.com! Click the banner at the top of the page to subscribe!

What Did Dr. Owl Say? With Black Baby

To this star through bolts and bars.

E-mail Updates

Your e-mail add|

Poll

After Madam Sirleaf's term(s), what will happen to Liberia?

- More progress with new leader
- Return to corruption & civil war

Current Results

Last Results: After Ellen's term in office, will Liberia return to normal or turn back to civil war?
Past Results

XML

Archives